♥ A FEW WORDS FROM THE EDITOR ABOUT GPOSERS ♥

GPOSERS is more than taking nice photos and sharing them with others. It's a community wrapped around a game we all know and love. It's a community that peeks into a new way of playing the game. It's a new way of looking at how we interact and share our passions. But it's ultimately a way to really connect with others and get creative.

Starting GPOSERS wasn't an easy task, and while we're growing slowly, we're growing strong. We host events for our members, along with weekly challenges. These challenges are here to help teach as well as improve on the skills of anyone using Gpose while expanding and breaking the traditional outlook on what it really means to be a Gposer in game. I believe that over the past year, 'Gposing' has really grown into something that many in our social media society can relate to and get inspired by.

The GPOSERS community is here to help the greater Final Fantasy XIV community by educating them on how to harness, adapt, improve, and stretch their skill levels. This can be done through our simple guides that we will be putting out each month that deal with in game Gpose aspects ranging from lighting, location, glams, to additional software such as ReShade, Photoshop and Gimp. Every guide is designed to help the community, starting from the very basics and hopefully moving on to more advanced editing. GPOSERS is a community for both PC and PS4 gamers, and we absolutely promote personal improvement!

♡ A FEW WORDS FROM THE EDITOR ABOUT GPOSERS ♡

This project was started based on my love for Gpose. I am no expert, nor do I believe that I have the expertise to critique others. However, I've learned over the last three years while working as a photographer and having played the game for four, that there is much more to it than taking a pretty picture of some clothes when it comes to 'Gposing'. I'm passionate enough to show off my work, and when others enjoy seeing the work I've done, I know I'm doing something right. What I want for everyone who joins our community is to feel at home with no drama and no uneasy feelings. The love and support that we have received so far is unreal, and the community itself is starting to look like a big family, which has been the goal from the very start.

Our goal is to host meetups every week during which we jump onto the main GPOSERS server (Lamia) and have quizzes, contests and just party! I was really shocked and overwhelmed by the amount of people who had showed up to our first ever event and it made my heart swell! We want to be a very hands-on and active community, and I believe we are achieving that as we continue to grow.

In closing, everyone is welcome! It doesn't matter who you are, what background you have, the type of skill level you think you have, or even if you don't take photos and just want to come by to meet new people. Our community really offers a different experience and it doesn't feel like any other. I couldn't have made this happen without all the members who have joined us so far! My only hope is that we continue to grow apace, because this is a community worth investing both your time and love into.

Staff Profiles

BIGGER & BADDER

Here is some roles you can take part in within the team:

SOCIAL NETWORKER: Handles social media accounts on behalf of the team. This is a very time consuming role and is handled by two people at least. They will be updating all social media accounts with regards to our events, challenges, and/or major announcements such as release dates for our magazine.

WRITER: Writers come up with their own ideas or take part in another person's ideas and help create and write out guides for the public to learn from. This can be anything about Gpose, glams and or editorial software. The ideas are endless!

LAYOUT DESIGNERS: These staff members are required to have some experience with InDesign and Photoshop. They be helping to shape the magazine's image and help create pieces of art along the way.

PROOFREADERS: Two people at least are in charge of cross checking all information for correct English as well as making sure that no work is stolen and/or plagiarized. This is an important job and is taken very seriously.

Join Gposers.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are provided tasks that mostly consist of going out and capturing photos for us. This can range from simple glamsours to environmental backgrounds.

GLAM ARTISTS: These Artists take charge and come up with our monthly glams to give the fashion world of Eorzea a wake up call! A large number of glams are made by them, and we also take one lucky community member each month to get their own glam placed on display.

WEEKLY AND MONTHLY FEATURE JUDGE: These staff members come up with our monthly theme and help judge who gets placed in our monthly magazine for winning first prize! They also get to help determine who from the weekly submissions will get to go up on our social media every Friday. We don't include the weekly challenge winners in our magazine, but our monthly winners are featured prominently!

DIRECT HELPER: This role is for those who have a wide knowledge in various areas with Gpose, Reshade, Texttools, mods, game settings, etc. People come to them and ask them for help on anything. They need be ready and take on challenges to help others. Apart from the Gpose aspect, we also ask that they have a wide understanding of in-game knowledge. No one needs to know everything, but a base understanding can make our Discord members a lot more comfortable at asking us questions!

EDITORS: This is the all round role. Editors are required to be able to take on all of the listed roles as needed, and be trusted to help lead the community. It is a tough job and requires a lot of time and commitment. They also help chase after any overdue work and/or late submissions as well as help managing the Discord channels.

MODERATORS: Moderators serve as overseers of the community Discord, which involves traditional moderation activities as well as managing announcements and keeping the rest of the staff informed about goings-on.

All roles are special and appreciated the same! Each requires a very unique skill set, the capacity to create new ideas, and most importantly the willingness to help make our community the best it can be. These roles are always open to apply for, and will require an interview just like any job! If you would like more information on how you can take up one of the roles on our team, don't hesitate to contact any of the staff. Your help is always needed and we don't turn away any ideas as each and every one is special and can be improved with a great team to help you! We look forward to seeing plenty of you join us in the future as staff, and we hope that even more of you take a look in our Discord and join the GPOSERS fanbase!

Kiyo

Molkoh

PHOTOGRAPHER, GLAM
ARTIST, & DESIGNER

I'm Kiyo Molkoh. I've been into mmos for a long time but Final Fantasy XIV has been a big part of my life for almost 3 years. I met the love of my life and some of my closest friends through this game.

I just recently got into taking more composed shots through gpose and wanted to share my content! I joined the Gposers because I wanted to be a part of something bigger and do something different in the XIV community. My goals for this project are to really bring my artistic side out in the Game.

In real life I am a videogame designer that focuses on environmental art. I took on a few roles to see how my skills can be used across various tasks.

I am part of Photographers, Weekly/Monthly Contest team, Glam Artists, & Layout Design. The one thing I love about this community is that there is no one way to play the game and that there are many ways to find social aspects of it.

People always want to help others and do new things. Being part of a new project gets makes me excited! I look forward to the journey!

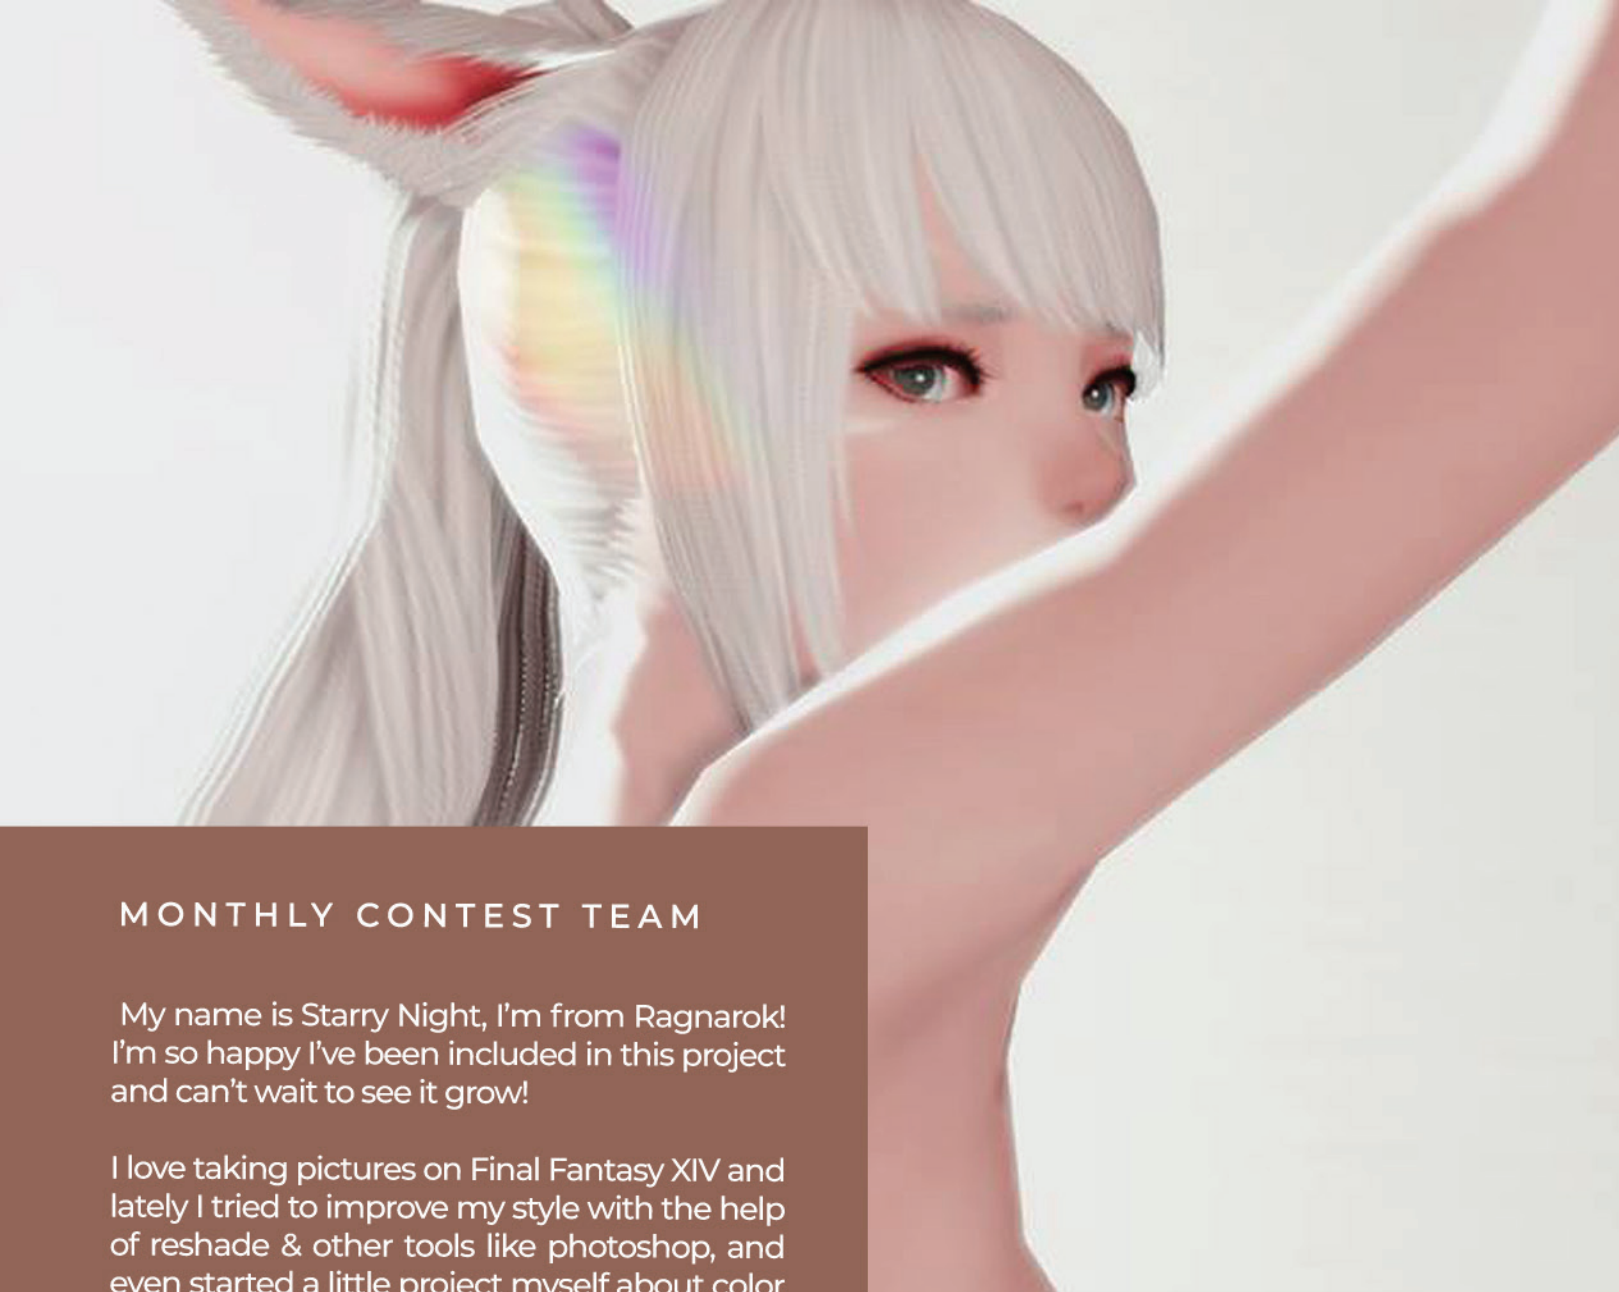

EDITOR, LEAD DESIGNER

Hi guys, my name is Yomigami Okami; Yomi for short. My name is a reference from the game Okami. I joined the Gposers Staff as a Graphic Designer because I simply love using Adobe programs to do work.

I always admired the previous TMP issues for their graphic design work, and want to get involved with magazine type designs. The screenshot/Final Fantasy XIV photography community is a growing and surprisingly larger community than I expected.

This time I hope to become a useful part of something bigger.

Yomigami

MONTHLY CONTEST TEAM

My name is Starry Night, I'm from Ragnarok! I'm so happy I've been included in this project and can't wait to see it grow!

I love taking pictures on Final Fantasy XIV and lately I tried to improve my style with the help of Reshade & other tools like Photoshop, and even started a little project myself about color palettes!

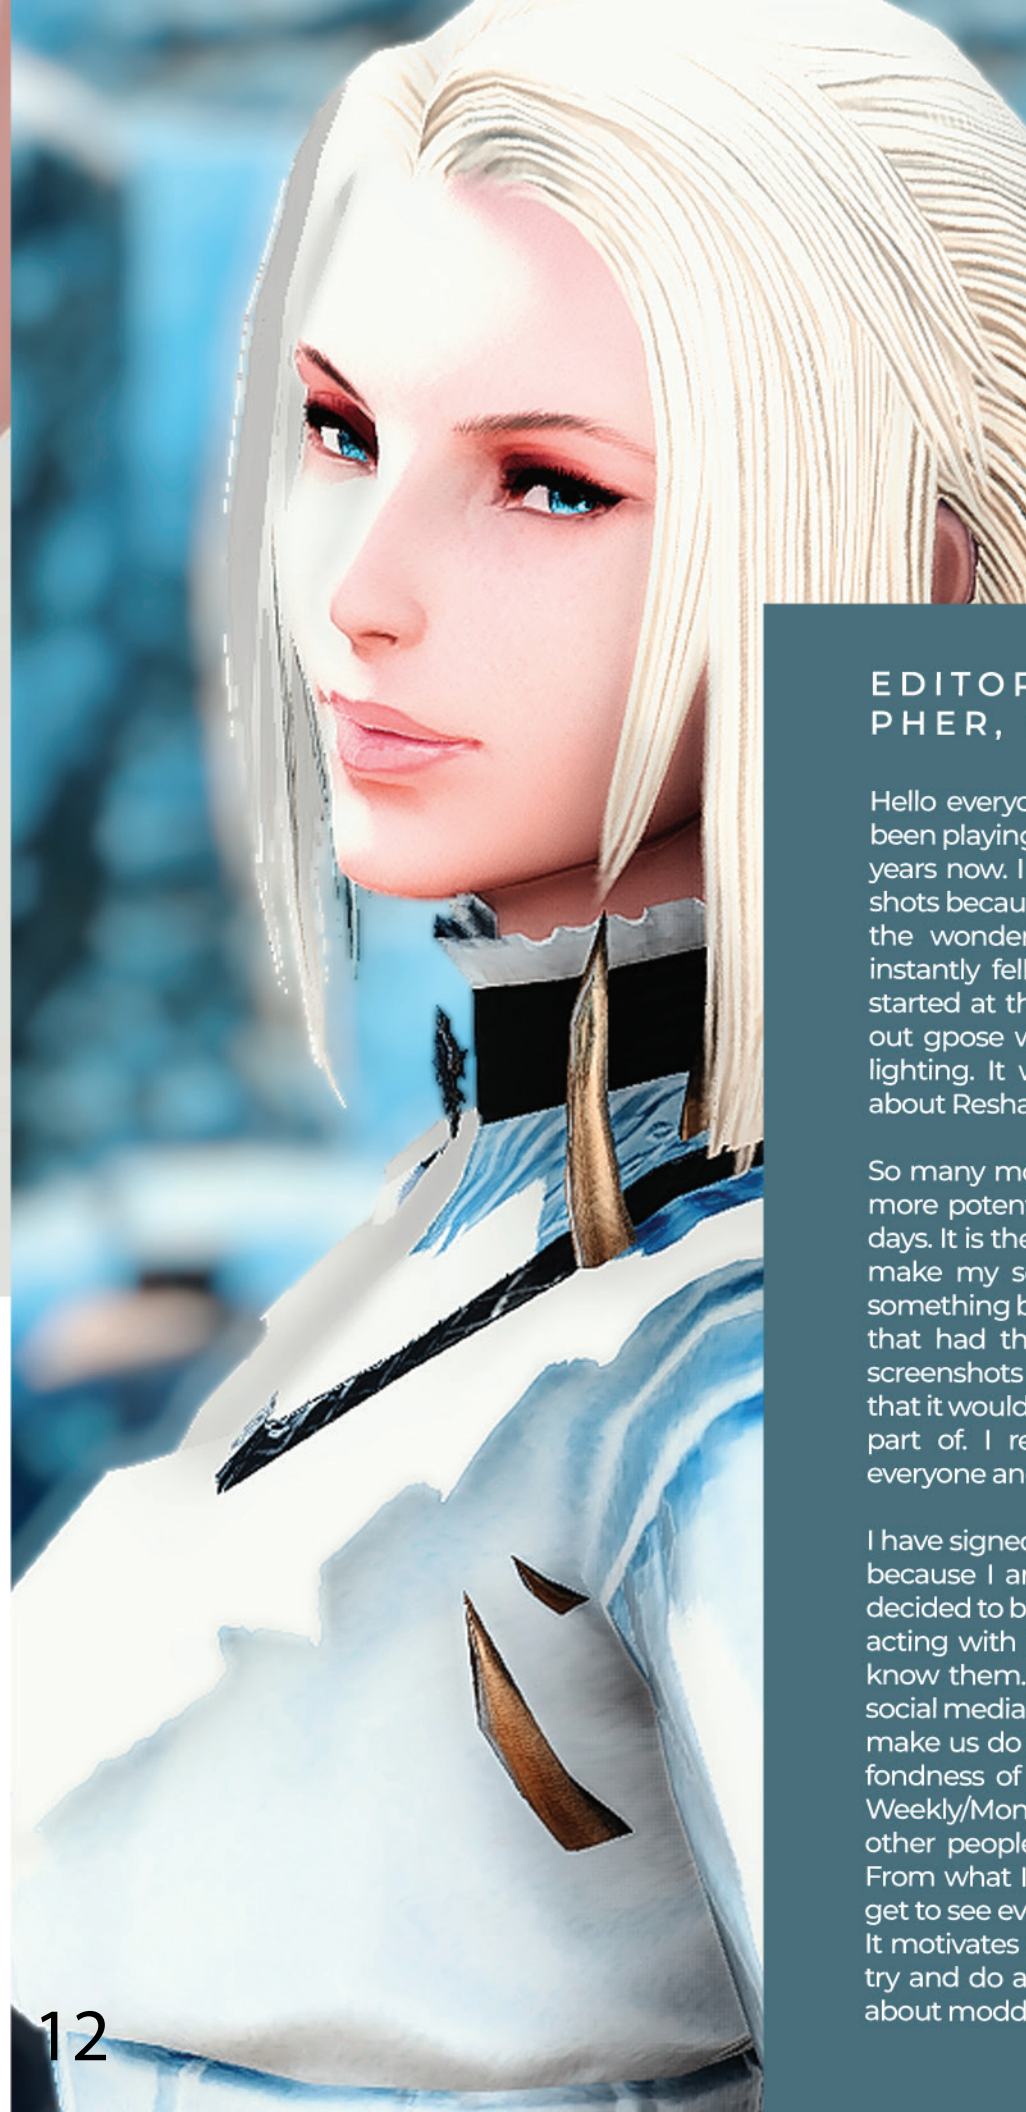

My role on the Gposers staff is to think about monthly themes and give some inspiration for the beautiful photos you guys will create!

I wish to improve my style more and more along with the community, which is already helping me a lot just by seeing the effort everyone is putting into this project!

It's simply wonderful to see a community growing so fast and with everybody being helpful and enthusiastic!

I'm so happy to have this opportunity and I will do my best to help the magazine grow as much as I can!

Shenova
Sama

EDITOR, LEAD PHOTOGRAPHER, SOCIAL NETWORKING

Hello everyone, my name is Shenova Sama. I have been playing Final Fantasy XIV for over one and a half years now. I originally became interested in screenshots because many of my friends introduced me to the wonderful world of gpose and Instagram. I instantly fell in love with it and I could not stop. I started at the bottom just with the basics, figuring out gpose while playing with the settings and the lighting. It was amazing for me until I found out about Reshade, and then it was perfect.

So many more settings to figure out, and so much more potential that I could not do without it these days. It is the only thing that I use at the moment to make my screenshots. I have never been part of something big, and when I met all of the people here that had the same drive as me for pictures and screenshots I both knew I was in the right place and that it would be something which I would like to be a part of. I really am hoping that I can help out everyone and play a big part in all of this.

I have signed up for the Photographer role of course because I am in love with screenshots. I have also decided to be on the Social Media team as I like interacting with people, talking to them and getting to know them. Helping out with the management of social media is another thing I think I can help with to make us do great. As I stated before, due to my fondness of pictures I decided to help out with the Weekly/Monthly Contest team so I can see what other people consider to be amazing screenshots. From what I have seen so far I am really glad that I get to see everyone's great ideas and amazing shots. It motivates me to do better and work harder. I also try and do a little writing here and there, especially about modding and Reshade.

Thiela

Inari

GLAMOUR ARTIST, MONTHLY CONTEST TEAM

Hi y'all! I'm Thiela Inari from Odin. I'm one of the Glamour Artists on the Gposers staff. I've been playing since early 2014, just before the Leviathan trial was released.

I've always been really into glammers and creating new and unique looks for my jobs. I likewise enjoy doing some creative writing in my spare time, so maybe one day some of that will make its way here too.

I'd love to share glamour ideas with the community; I take a lot of pride in mine and hope that they inspire creativity within the community.

I joined the project because I love little side projects that gaming communities create!

I've always wanted to be a part of one but never had the opportunity to do so.

The creativity Final Fantasy XIV inspires in our community I find to be amazing, and I enjoy seeing all the fanart and creative writing that comes as a result.

I'm really hoping to share a little bit of my own via a medium created by like-minded people.

GLAMOUR ARTIST, MONTHLY CONTEST TEAM

Hello there! I'm Lilac Moon, it's a pleasure to introduce myself to you all!

I've been playing the game for only about 6 months, and my main is on Coeur! if any of you would like to meet up!

I joined the Gposers staff to help teach people who don't know about gpose and how it functions to use it to make memorable screenshots!

I remember the struggle of learning it on my own all those many months ago, and want to be there to help you all! I've taken up the roles of Glam Artist and hold a seat on the Monthly/Weekly Contest team as a judge.

If anything I want to bring you guys not only my help and friendship but fresh new hot glamour styles to keep your screenshots refreshing to the eye!

This community is like a family, sometimes you will run into that mean sibling or cousin, but regardless it's family.

Those you are close to will be there for you, and hopefully further continue to inspire both you and me everyday.

Taldraxena

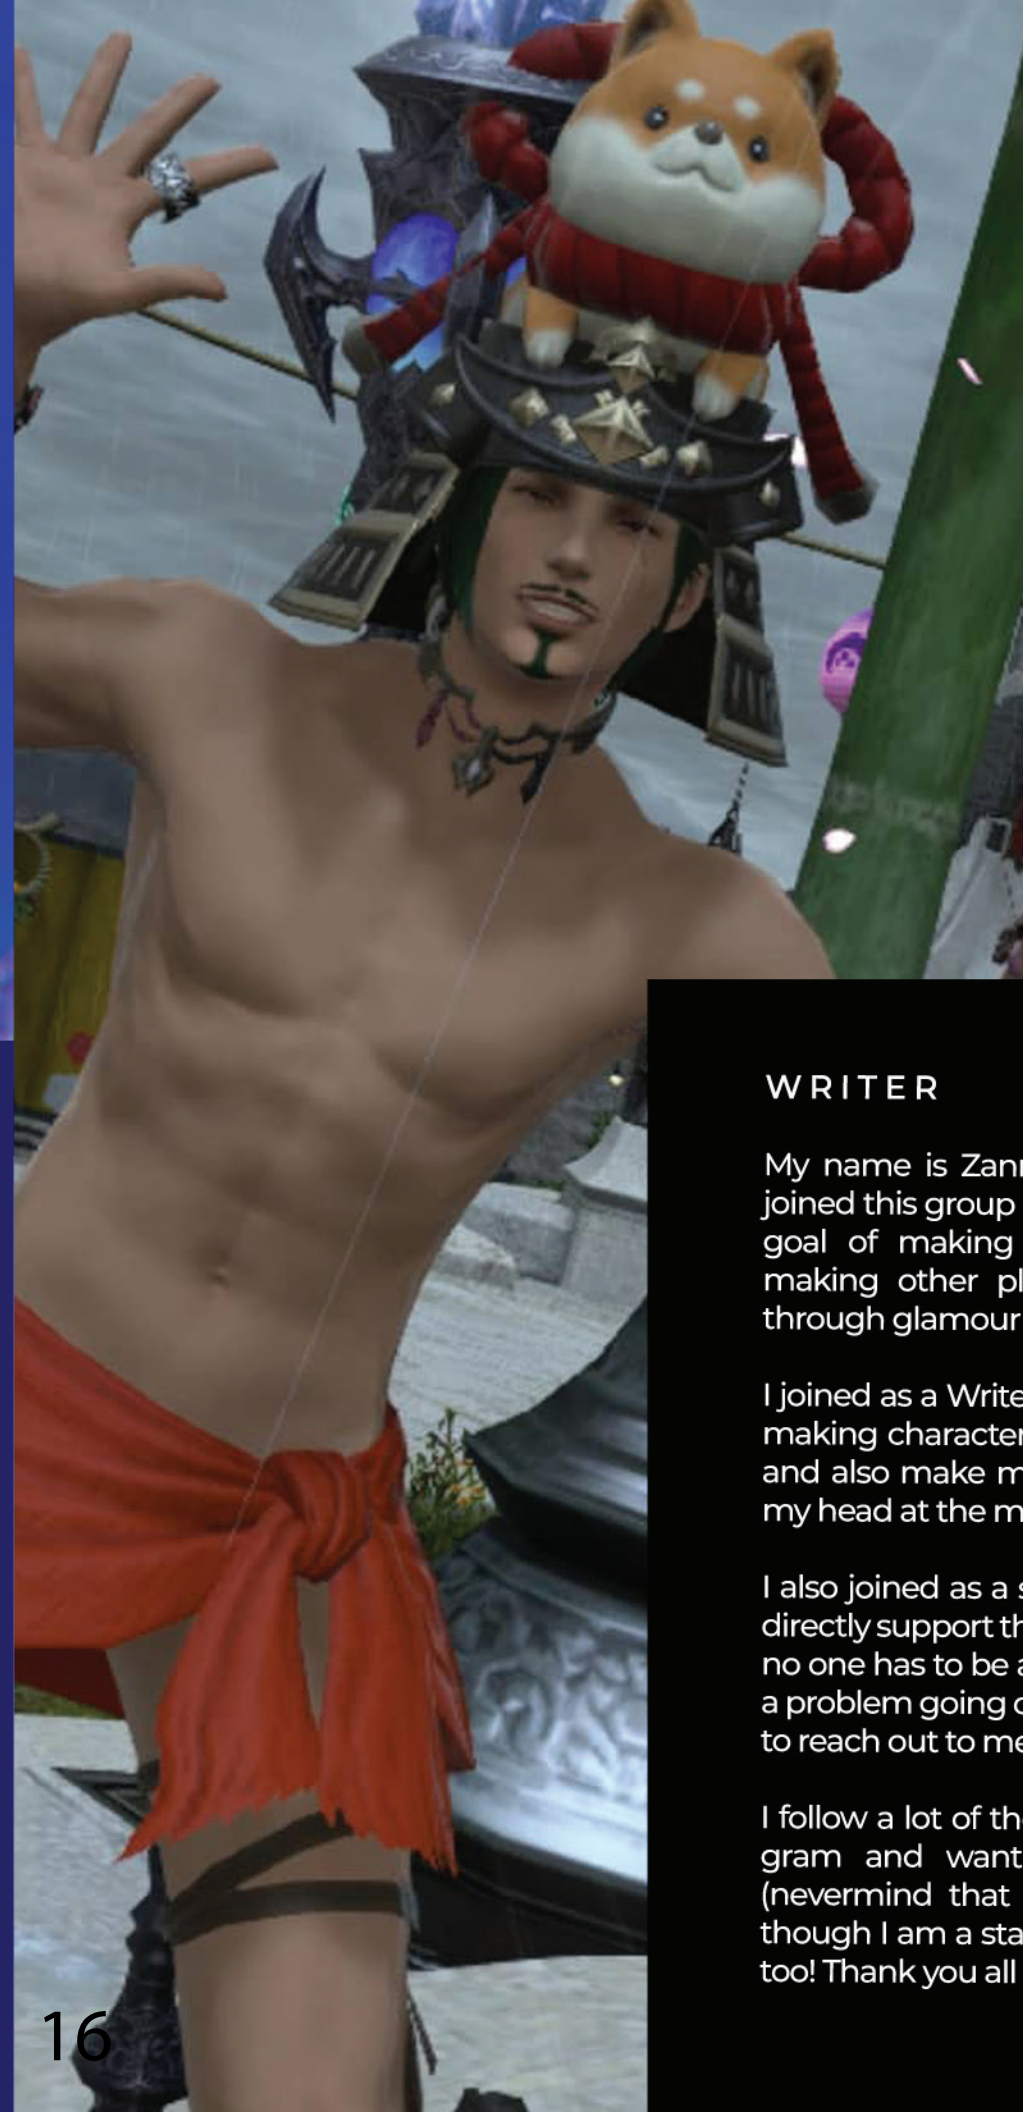

Kiroa

WRITER, PROOFREADER, MONTHLY CONTEST TEAM

My name is Taldraxena Kiroa; T.K. or Tal for short. Before I joined the Gposers staff I was a player, striving to help others by the various means I had. These included: streaming, taking screenshots for my Instagram, writing stories, and just plain helping players in game. I joined to do what I loved, which is to help people and make the Final Fantasy XIV community a better place for everyone. Not only did I join for that, I also joined to be a part of the activities that I loved. As a staff member, I have taken up four roles at this moment: Photographer, Weekly/Monthly Contest team judge, Proof Reader, and Writer.

Gposers strive to make the community a better place, but that's not all I want to do. I want to help achieve any goals in the future! The community is, in every sense of the word interesting. That isn't a bad thing at all, and in fact I mean that in the best possible way. They are many, many, many amazing people who care and love to help players move forward in XIV, whether it means helping them with a raid/dungeon clear, crafting/gathering, or just unlocking things.

The community is helpful, and loving. They are creative, and cunning. When you need help, there is a crowd or even an army that is willing to work with you, and help you achieve your in game goals. That is what I love about the Final Fantasy XIV community.

Zanmatos
Highwind

WRITER

My name is Zanmatos Highwind from Brynhildr, I joined this group because I wanted to support Talia's goal of making a fun community dedicated to making other players feel welcome and at ease through glamour and much more.

I joined as a Writer because that is my passion; I love making characters and fiction from different anime and also make my own stories, though most are in my head at the moment.

I also joined as a staff member because I wanted to directly support this group and make it a place where no one has to be afraid of one another. If anyone has a problem going on in their lives please don't hesitate to reach out to me!

I follow a lot of the staff and our members on Instagram and want to interact with you all more (nevermind that I'm also a big fan as well). Even though I am a staff member I will always be a friend too! Thank you all for being you!

Yukimaru Tosho

PROOFREADER, COMMUNITY
EVENT TEAM

Hi everyone! My name is Yukimaru Tosho in-game, but y'all can call me Yuki or Maru. I've been playing XIV since early 2015 on Balmung.

I'd like to help the project by proof-reading and providing a helping hand with our social media presence.

I believe that, with time, this project will become one of the biggest XIV communities, providing creators a chance to show their skills and the opportunity to produce high quality content that engages the community.

I'm definitely looking forward to watching it grow. I would love to get to know the everyone better and I definitely enjoy making new friends, so feel free to reach out to me!

I'm always willing to collaborate with any projects and assignments, or even just to play content with others.

Kupaii Satil

EDITOR, MONTHLY CONTEST TEAM
LEAD, SOCIAL NETWORKING

Hihi! I am Kupaii Satil, a moogly resident of Lamia, and I'm new to this introduction scene! Here's a little bit about me! I have an extreme love of moogles, kupo! I enjoy seeing people smile and have fun! Even more so watching people while they design things & express their passions! I'm energetic, understanding, and a good listener, so if ever you need to talk I'm always around! I've been a fan of TMP and everyone's work on it for a long time, but I only recently offered to help in ways that I could.

I've always wanted to help with something that's bigger than me and step outside of my comfort zone, but needless to say that fell through. Thanks to Talia, I got the opportunity join the Gposers staff to help out and do just that for our community and everyone interested in gposing! It is my hope that we in the Gposers community can help those interested in gposing; both future and present members. What I do as a staff member includes Social Networking, Proofreading, and I am a part of the Weekly/Monthly contest team! I believe our community is special and supportive, it's somewhere anyone can belong even if you are new to gposing or just looking to make friends and learn new things along the way. I believe that we are a family in more ways than one!

Marot

EDITOR, WRITER, SOCIAL NETWORKING

Ello! I'm Marot Satil of Lamia, proprietor of the Speakeasy LS, leader of a small FC/gaming community, and probably am known for a few other in-game things as well! Some folk have taken to calling me a demon or a devil, but talk to me a little while and you'll realize I'm not so bad. Back on track! Having been fans of TMP for some years, Kupaii and I were naturally drawn to help out the publication in its time of need after the very public split, by attempting to become staff and in turn contribute to something we both enjoyed. In the process of doing just that, we met Talia and were around when things went south for good.

For obvious reasons we then moved instead to support her with this new project, and now here we are. Speaking for myself, I am excellent at editing work, especially when it comes to assisting writers with brainstorming about ideas, proofreading, ensuring that their works are palpable for their target audience, and so on. Just don't ask me to write an original work or you'll be waiting longer than that poor worker in Idyllshire for a rescue! I likewise have a number of years experience in what amounts to PR, especially with regard to maintaining a positive public opinion on and off of social media.

I'm also the person who wrote the discord bot (Pai-poser!) in the public server from scratch- and learned Javascript to do just that-but I'm far from an expert coder so don't yell at me too loudly when/if it explodes at random!

Freya

Bloodmourne

PHOTOGRAPHER & WRITER

Hihi! I'm Freya Bloodmourne-avid ffxiv nerd and professional photographer-that specializes in modeling/fashion print work. Gpose has been a massive sandbox for me-and i love working with others to create amazing images! I joined the Gposers staff because of my love for photography; seeing the full power of gpose as well as the work others have created has inspired me to continue my creative journey in everything this wonderful feature has to offer. When the chance became available to assist as a Photographer & Writer for the magazine, I jumped on the chance!

Starting something new can be scary; but if you don't push yourself at times you won't ever know what you are really capable of! My primary goal here is to support this project using my knowledge of professional photography and inspire the creative flow between staff and members alike! It brings me great joy to see progress from others the more they practice their craft, and our community is an amazing place to share your work, receive feedback, and push yourself to new heights! I am honored to be a part of this project, and I look forward to my future here with great anticipation.

Pinkie

Bear

WRITER, SOCIAL NETWORKING

Hi there! I'm Pinkie and I'm an addict. I've been completely lost in the world of Eorzea for a 2-3 years now and I've been taking screenshots since the start of my journey up until this day. Final Fantasy has been a big part of my life for a long time, Not the way you would imagine but the people I've met and talked to day in and day out have really helped me with my everyday life. I decided to create an Instagram account when a friend practically forced me to start one and boy do I have no regrets that she did that.

I've become utterly drawn into the instagram community and have loved posting ever since. I just loved seeing how everyone has their own stories, own personalities which you can see from every piece of creative work anyone posts meaning seeing all the couple shots or just what people are up to with friends, to being alone you can see the game is surreal in many ways and I just love to see it.

I found this community just at the right time, I was going to move servers to meet new people and friends when I saw Talia advertising for staff which filled the empty void I much needed and now love! I currently use the Pocket Galaxy preset made by Elyse Stonewall. I haven't really altered any of the settings I just fell in love with it from the first moment I saw it.

I look forward to putting all of my passion into this project, meeting new people and helping everyone where possible. I'm currently a Omega nerd, feel free to poke me in the discord for anything or to even just talk! Cya around... <3

DESIGNER

Hello, I am Byuu Crozier from Odin! I am known for my unwavering faith in wearing the Goblin Cap at all times, hoarding Krakka Roots, and running after Roegadyn. My adventure started when 2.0 launched and I was a casual player until I discovered the holy grail that is Reshade. Ever since, my endgame has been all about making the ultimate preset and sneakily taking pictures of people.

I joined this community to become part of something great; to get to know all the talented people who share the same passion and broaden both my knowledge and experience by working with the amazing Gposers staff! If you see me in-game, give me a Krakka Root and I'll be your best friend forever!

G-MEMBER INTERVIEW

EVOLI NETTIKA

Marot Satil: Let's start with the basics then! I'm sure our readers would love to hear all about you, so who are you? What's your favorite type of coffee? What's your life story? Who do you work for!?

Evoli Nettika: Oh my God! The readers are so invasive, haha! Okay, so...I am a Canadian mom of 3. I've been gaming for as long as I can remember! No, I will not disclose my age at this time! I love my coffee very much, and I take it double double to offset the bitterness! My life story is not so fun, and quite complicated indeed. So highlights...I was a young mom and had dropped out of school because I was missing so much due to being very sick for my whole pregnancy.

Never fear! I got my schooling after I had the baby! It took me a long time to find my path; I didn't start my career until the kids were all in school full time! I was unsure of what I wanted to do, but after many years of taking care of little people I decided to go back to school to be a Personal Support Worker (PSW). That is what I do to this day and I absolutely love it! I find great joy in helping others! I started playing FFXIV roughly a year, maybe a year and a half ago. After a very, very long stint of playtime in World of Warcraft...and all my friends leaving, I wanted to try a different game. I have always been a fan of the Final Fantasy series and decided to take a look. I will now be playing until either the game dies, or I do! Haha! I main a Moon Seeker on Goblin, but I also play a Sun Seeker on Lamia. Evoli Nettika is my name on both servers and you can feel free to say hi anytime you see me!

I also have other alts on Goblin that I play when I get the urge to fantasia, to save me some money in the long run. I know there is no real sense to alternate characters in XIV... but I have always been used to making them and, strangely enough, I do not mind leveling! I have enjoyed my time in Eorzea! So far I have met some amazing people in game, and I am happy to call them friends, I look forward to meeting more, especially since this is the majority of socializing that I get to do!

I am also in awe of the talent so many of my new friends-and friends I have yet to meet-have with the in game Gpose. So much inspiration! I used to draw when I was younger and every attempt I had made to get back into it kinda gets smushed. Don't worry, it's still going to happen! But in the meantime Gpose and editing help me stay creative. That's good enough for me!

Marot: Travesties against coffee notwithstanding, it sounds like you've had quite the life! While I can't ever see myself seriously leveling alts in XIV, I do appreciate your dedication! Aside from alts, what do you normally find yourself doing in-game?

Evoli: Hmm...I dabble in just about everything. Dailies, chatting with friends, dungeons, etc. As a co-lead of a small Free Company most of my time is spent trying to plan events and organize things. Our events are usually map runs and mount farming, nothing too drastic. Also gardening...it has taken over my soul!

Marot: That reminds me, my FC's gardener hasn't been on in around two months. Looking for another job by chance? The benefits are good even if the hours aren't! Opportunity! Did you have any classes or jobs that you enjoy in particular?

Evoli: I'd gladly garden for you if you know what it is you want! I do quite like it, all jokes of soul sucking aside! I love to heal, playing on PS4 I wasn't sure I'd be any good, so I first leveled a Summoner. My absolute favorite job is astrologian, pretty cards, pretty stars, saving butts, totally love it! Botanist, I also love botany, something about picking flowers!

MEET THE COMMUNITY

As I haven't had a chance to play them all...I would have to say red mage is my favorite DPS job, that could still change though! Tanking scares me...I will only tank with a group full of friends!

Marot: A natural born healer! Don't feel too bad about the tanking, there are plenty of people who share that sentiment! I was pretty nervous about it myself when I started, and now I barely play anything else! We've heard about your favorite classes, but how about a favorite zone or area? Don't be afraid to mention more than one!

Evoli: Oh goodness...most of the zones and areas are so pretty! How ever will I choose? Well now, Lavender Beds is by far my favorite housing area. I still enjoy visiting the others too, but I loved it so much that it's where I chose to buy my first home. I had later moved to Goblet to be near my FC, and then again to Shirogane because...well...new area! Ultimately I ended up missing Lavender Beds and moved there to be near my current FC.

I have a really hard time picking a favorite zone though...because every single one I go to I find myself saying: "It's so pretty here!". Let's face it, I just love them all, haha!

Marot: I'd hate to see how much all of those moves cost! Even with transfers that had to have all added up! Zones play a big part in the next question: What are your thoughts on Gposing?

Evoli: I love Gposing! I am still learning how to play with poses and features, and I am Gposing just about everywhere I can! I can spend a whole day—maybe more—just taking many many Gpose shots.

Marot: So I've seen! You're a regular in our screenshots channel on the Discord! And speaking of the GPOSERS community, what do you think of it? Are you enjoying your time with us?

Evoli: Ah GPOSERS! I actually noticed this group had formed through stories I watch on Instagram. I knew immediately that it was going to be the kind of community I wanted to be a part of! What is not to love about a group of friendlies who are just as obsessed as I am with in-game photography!? So far, I have met quite a few of the other GPOSERS members and they are all so great! They are nice, funny, supportive, generous and fun people!

We have had a couple meet-ups so far and I really look forward to meeting more and seeing all their talents through our time together!

Marot: Sounds like you're having fun, and I wouldn't hope for anything less! Was there any particular experiences or events that really stood out to you so far?

Evoli: Mhm. Our very first official meet-up! There was trivia, a dance party, of course gposing, and a lot of people! It was so much fun! There was also Faust's surprise birthday party! It was short and not many showed up—likely due to time zones and being last minute and all—but it was just the sweetest thing! These are the kinda people I want to have in my gaming experience!

Marot: I was there myself for both occasions and I wholly agree! Faust's storytelling was also pretty memorable! For the next question, I want you to be absolutely brutal; don't hold anything back. What are your honest thoughts about the GPOSERS staff?

Evoli: Hmm. Well, I do believe I have a few more to "meet" yet...but so far, I really have nothing ill to say. The staff are respectful and kind. In the Discord they are very engaging with conversations and quick to respond to inquiries. Like when other members want to learn how to do things, like install reshade or mods. That is just a small example, of course. There is so much more to it. I feel comfortable with the staff, and that they want this to be a fun shared experience. It's a really nice feeling to get off of people, you know?

Marot: I do know! On behalf of the whole team, thank you for the compliments! It sounds like we're doing our jobs swimmingly! Last question and then you're a free kitten! About how long have you been with us?

Evoli: Well, this is a super easy question! I have been here since day one! Could have been two, or three...maybe the fourth day...but it was super close to the start! I think. Yeah...the start! I plan on sticking around as long as possible too!

Marot: I did save the easiest one for last, admittedly! But seeing as I've run out of questions and they won't let me ask anything too interesting, you're free! Thank you once more for putting some time aside, and I'll be holding you to that gardening offer!

Evoli: I hope you won't work me too hard, you'll make me ruin my purrfectly manicured claws! Thank you for allowing me this opportunity! I look forward to reading future interviews that don't include me! Haha!

Marot Satil: Good evening, and thanks for putting aside some time for this interview!

Faust: No problem at all, I'm elated to have been asked!

Marot: Hopefully you're also elated to spill all of your deepest and darkest secrets to all o-hold on they just handed me another set of questions...well these are boring, but they'll do. Tell us a bit about yourself!

Faust: Well, I started playing FFXIV I want to say...maybe a year or so ago? I had been playing various games with a group of friends who brought up FFXIV, suggesting we all check it out. So I did, and got really invested in it. I had never played a Final Fantasy title before, and I like to think I started strong with 14. Other than that, outside of the game, I'm your average 23 year old man-child with an intense passion for music, having played drums for over 15, 16 years.

Marot: And strong you did start, FFXIV really is a great game. If you don't mind sharing, what name(s) do you normally go by in-game, and on what world(s) can you usually be found?

Faust: Of course! Where are my manners... You'll find me largely on Mateus, and I go by a number of characters. If I had to limit it to three, your best bet is looking up Full-time Senpai, Kehda'li Nelhah, and Faust Horelus.

Marot: One of those makes me want to ask: as opposed to part-time? Dad jokes aside, what do you normally find yourself doing in-game? Are you a raider, more of a roleplayer, perhaps a mix, or something else altogether?

Faust: Hey, it's a full time job! I don't get much sleep... Hmm, I definitely find myself mostly just doing content these days. There's so much of the game to explore and so many things to do! I do roleplay where I can, in fact when I first started playing, I was primarily roleplaying. But then Stormblood came out and I got swept away in the Ruby Sea of content. There was a lot I wanted to catch up on.

Marot: Nothing wrong with a little bit (or a lot) of roleplay, I think. For someone a year or so in

I can certainly understand being buried by content as well! Do you have any particular class(es) you either main or really just enjoy playing?

Faust: I've enjoyed all of them so far. I started out as a black mage, and fell in love with it. The damage, the particle effects, everything. Though my first 70 was bard. I have a lot of 70's spread out, so I picked one character (Senpai) to act as my out of character "main" where I can level everything on one singular character without having to worry about needing a specific class for roleplaying. I got her to 70 machinist and just recently, 70 samurai.

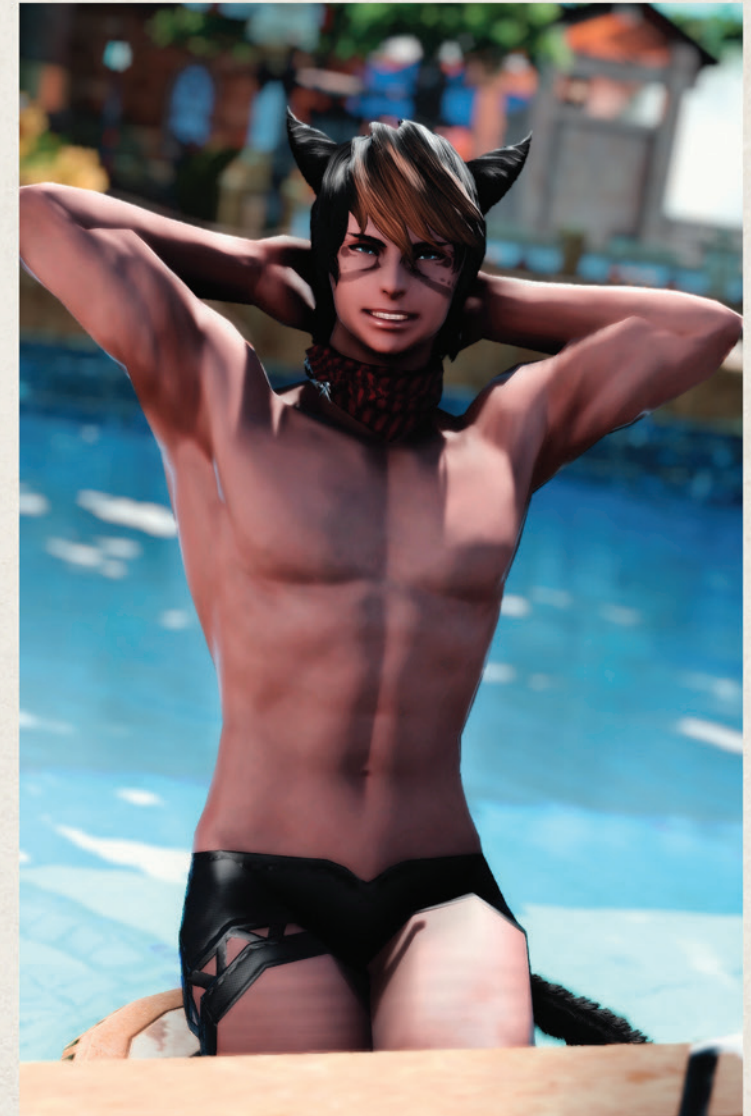

Marot: Sounds like you're a veritable jack of all trades! Well, at least on one character anyway. What would you say is your favorite area in-game?

Faust: Oof...that's a tough one! I want to say Idyllshire and the connected Dravanian Hinterlands are my favorite two areas in the game. There's something...different about them. Very neutral color palettes; almost otherworldly with all the stalagmite mountains. Plus, I'm an avid anima relic hunter, so I spend plenty of time in those areas.

Marot: I personally would love to have seen Sharlayan (the city-state) before it was abandoned, and I know what you mean about the whole area being otherworldly. Are you an avid Gposer yourself, and if so, how did you start?

Faust: That would have been amazing, I agree. I am! I adore Gpose, I love any game with a photography feature. I don't really know how I started, but I do know that when I first did, my photos weren't really anything amazing. I had some help from friends that were more adept at Gpose give me pointers, and from there I just ran with it. Got better with each shot.

Marot: Well, be sure to share plenty of them with us! The more the merrier when it comes to screenshots around these parts! Speaking of-how'd you find out about the GPOSERS community?

Faust: I found this community really by chance. I am in other FFXIV related discords (of course) such as Project Chocobo and Creators of Light, etc. I think I was scrolling through the chat in one of them not too long ago and someone posted the invite link to GPOSERS. I just went ahead and clicked it, and ta-da! Here I was. Much like how I kicked down the door just before this interview. Since then, I've really grown to adore the community. I'm normally more reserved, but everyone was just so likeable I had to be a part of it.

Marot: Speaking of the door, you do know you're going to have to pay for that, yeah? We'll talk more about that after the interview though. No need to let the readers hear the particulars about what'll happen if you don't! That aside, have you had any experiences within or around the GPOSERS community that really stood out to you?

Faust: Oh absolutely. The most notable experience I've had was just last week, on Thursday. It was my birthday, and Talia had been hyping me up to join her on Lamia and take pictures together; just something to do for my birthday. Little did I know she was leading me into a surprise party full of other GPOSERS members. I had been going through some rough moments this month and everyone really came together to cheer me up and celebrate my birthday with me. It was really special. Really special.

Marot: As someone who was there I can honestly say I enjoyed your storytelling! You should consider doing some writing here and there; the magazine could always do with more content creators. Next up on the chopping block are the staff. What do you think about us, looking at everything so far? No feedback is too critical, don't pull any punches!

Faust: Ah! Well thank you so much for coming! Really, you guys made a grown man teary-eyed. I'm so glad you enjoyed that little story, I'll definitely consider more in-depth ones in the future. I am a firm believer in All Staff Members Must Perish. I'm kidding, of course, you guys and gals have been truly wonderful. I really don't have anything bad to say. You provide plenty of in-game opportunities to join events, and the weekly Gpose challenges are all so awesome to see. One of these days, I'll submit an entry.

Marot: I'm looking forward to seeing what you can do! We're winding down on the list of questions they handed to me earlier-a certain someone is giving me a death stare whenever I look at the set I tried to start this interview with-and so I have one final targeted question for you: how long have you been a part of the GPOSERS community?

Faust: Meet me out back in 10, we'll get to the real questions... To answer THIS one though, I joined on the 13th of July. So I have been here for a little over 2 weeks actually, 17 days. It feels a LOT longer than that though!

Marot: Time does fly when you're having fun! Thanks again for putting aside some time for our little chat, and I'll meet you out back to talk about both expensive doors and deep dark secrets!

Faust: You got it! This was a lot of fun, thank YOU for talking with me, and for being you!

HYNDIL MALHA

Marot Satil: Good afternoon! Thanks for setting some time aside to chat!

Hyndil Malha: Good evening! It's no problem at all!

Marot: It better not be a problem, you are getting a free photo shoot after all! Jokes aside, tell our readers a bit about yourself. Who is the mysterious Hyndil?

Hyndil: Got to take what's offered, no? Anyhow, my character, Hyndil Malha, is not that mysterious at all! She and I are just ordinary people venjoying the community of FFXIV. All you have to do to get to know us is come say hi! We don't bite! Or well, I don't. Hyndil might once in a while.

Marot: So you're both ordinary people who both may or may not have vampiric tendencies, got it. What world(s) do you find yourself playing on the most?

Hyndil: I don't tend to stray too much from the world that my main character, Hyndil, is on. That's Behemoth by the way, because you know I have plenty to do there! Gardening, leveling, crafting, gathering, mentor roulette and so on, haha. Though I do have a few alts! I used to have so many that I had trouble finding Hyndil among them in my character list! You can spot me on Omega, Cerberus and Faerie now and then, but usually not for very long.

Marot: Sounds like you're quite the busy person then! Many people complain about a lack of things to do in-game and to hear the opposite is always refreshing. About how long have you been playing?

Hyndil: Well I could be busy! But it does take a lot of effort and that is too much sometimes. I do agree with those people though, there isn't all that much to do in game once you've done everything. Speaking as a casual player of course! You can argue that you could do savage content, which I would but I don't have the equipment for that just yet. As for how long I have been playing, I started back when the Valentione event was going on. When you could get the cherry trees, so I think that's about 4 years? I have taken my time doing everything! I could have had all the classes at max level, but I don't because that way I don't have an excuse that lets me say I have nothing to do!

Marot: 4 years is a good run! It's funny you'd mention those cherry trees though, I only picked up one as I absolutely loathed that repeatable quest. Laziness did not pay off in my case...but enough about my misfortune of millions! Do you have a favorite class? Or are you more the sort to give everything a try?

Hyndil: Back then I didn't even know it was an event and how they worked, so I grabbed none! All those millions lost indeed. My favourite class...hmm...good question. I think every class has its fun elements. I have switched mains a few times already, started as bard in A Realm Reborn, went to white mage throughout the most of Heavensward, and then throughout Stormblood I have been playing astrologian. I've got other classes levelled as well, such as dragoon, monk, and dark knight, so I will say that I'm happy to give everything a try for sure! But I think I can surely say that I am a healer at heart.

Marot: Nothing wrong with enjoying a bit of healing, though I'm more of a tank person myself! How did you find yourself getting interested in taking screenshots & Gposing in general?

Hyndil: Ah bless, I hate tanking. Though I started taking screenshots because I thought cinematics were beautiful! Also because pictures are nice memories. Though I only actually got into Gpose thanks to the free company I was in back then! This was back when Hyndil was still on Cerberus. One or two of our members had made an Instagram already and would post incredible screenshots. They were my inspiration to explore Gpose. It gave me a reason to play more often, as this was during a time there was a large amount of people taking breaks and such. Now I am here!

Marot: And here you certainly belong! Speaking of, how did you find out about the GPOSERS community?

Hyndil: Why thank you! I found out about the GPOSERS community through the creator, Talia, herself. I had met her before in other projects and once spotted her hanging around with an FC member of mine during a photoshoot. She had messaged me asking me to join her new community Discord, and I did!

Marot: A better way to find out there may not be! Straight from the founder! Do you have any thoughts you'd like to share about the community itself so far?

Hyndil: I think it's a very open and creative community, there are so many talented people! In case you'd need help or have questions, there's very likely someone there to give you some advice or even help you through your situation. It's like a big family. A family I like to be part of.

Marot: That's a sentiment that I've heard more than a few times now, and it's one I have to personally agree with! Are there any particular events or experiences that have happened to or around you in the community that you felt really stood out?

Hyndil: Nothing major just yet as I tend to be on the quieter side, but right now as there is a weekly challenge going on with a cosplay theme. I am not familiar and have never done before it before, but it seems that people seem to like my entry a lot and I am humbled by that. There was also that moment when my entry was chosen along with two other entries for the very first weekly feature, I had never expected that.

Marot: I'd say winning a contest certainly counts as notable! The competition is no joke; there are so many talented members with us at present. But members aside, did you have any thoughts on the GPOSERS staff?

Hyndil: There for sure are very talented members! As for the staff, the only time that I feel they are staff, is when they make an official announcement. And that's a good thing! They are friendly and participate in chats just as much as ordinary members. They're just as much part of the family as the other members, with no noticeable differences, at least to me.

Marot: Well, I know a number of us will be happy to hear that, and I personally think that is how it should be. Mission accomplished, hooray! One last question and then you're free! How long have you been a member of the GPOSERS community?

Hyndil: You should be proud of that! I agree. I think I joined the GPOSERS community about a week after its creation, but I dare not say the exact time! Actually, not after creation, but after it was opened up for ordinary members, after gathering staff.

Marot: You're more or less a founding member then, which is awesome! But I've run out of questions which...isn't awesome! Thank you again for putting aside some time for this inter- view, and thank you especially for being one big part of the whole that makes the GPOSERS community great!

Hyndil: I suppose that does make me an almost-founding-member! And it was no problem at all, it was an honor. Thank you for being one of those awesome staff members!

Marot Satil: Starting off—thank you for taking some time out of your day to do this interview!

Kupo Paw: Don't worry, it's new for me but I'll try my best!

Marot: That's perfectly fine! I don't normally do these myself, so we're in the same boat! Shall we start with a bit about you? Who is Kupo Paw, and are you perhaps a mooglee?

Kupo: Hello! I'm Kupo Paw but people call me Shadow, Kupo or Kupi. I'm a lalafell and my in-game name is Shadow Paw on Phoenix. I also have a miqo'te alt, but Shadow (my lalafell) is my main.

Marot: Not a mooglee but a lalafell! Quite the twist! About how long have you been playing FFXIV?

Kupo: On this character 242 days, but I've played before that on another character that I only reached level 30 with. On that character, I joined an FC on Odin and it ended really badly. They weren't nice to someone in the FC, and after I kind of said I didn't want to be a part of that I got a lot of hate from them. It made me quit FFXIV for a while.

I later came back and joined a second FC which ended in arguments again, and I took a year break. When I came back a third time, I joined another FC which ended badly, but I feel like it was my fault. Eventually I met the FC Dango and I'm loving every day in it! I got to meet my static and my friends who Gpose through it!

Marot: So around a year of accumulated playtime with a few breaks, that's not so bad. I'm especially happy to hear everything worked out in the end and that you found a group you're really happy with! You mentioned raiding and Gposing, but is there anything else you enjoy doing in-game?

Kupo: I'm in Limsa a lot just talking to people, and sometimes other spots. Now and then I make chocobo, behemoth, etc. trains.

Marot: That brings back some fond memories of A Realm Reborn & Revenant's Toll for me; trains like that were a very common sight back then. Do you have any classes that you particularly enjoy playing?

Kupo: Yes I do! My main is warrior, I'm currently best in slot without an ultima weapon. I also play paladin and dark knight. I have bard, ninja, and dragoon all at 70 too.

Marot: A lalafell after my own heart! I too do all of the fell cleaves! Mutual warrior excitement aside, is there any area or zone in FFXIV that you're very fond of?

Kupo: A few! Limsa, God Kefka's platform, Idyllshire (my favorite), but I love all of them to be honest.

Marot: I have to admit, the gold/yellow hue of God Kefka's arena starts to bother my eyes after a while; it made progression a very literal pain! So how did you end up finding out about the GPOSERS community?

Kupo: GPOSERS followed me one day on Instagram and I saw the link to it, and I thought it looked fun. I didn't join for a while, but then I found it again and joined to see what it was like, and I met super nice people here!

Marot: I think I speak for all of us when I say that we're happy you're enjoying your stay! What are your thoughts on the GPOSERS community as a whole?

Kupo: It's new! But also really warm and welcoming, really nice and happy. There are some lewd and funny posts but it's fun. It's especially nice that even though I'm a girl you guys are so welcoming and treat me like I'm one of you guys.

Marot: We selected G-Members in particular for these interviews, it's safe to say that you ARE one of us! There's not a shred of doubt about that! The greater community aside, how do you feel about the staff?

Kupo: I like them, they are nice. Me and Shenova have meet up a few times, and I've also talked to Kupaii and Talia.

Marot: Glad to hear you've had nothing but good experiences with our staff! You're almost free but I have one more question for you! How long have you been a member of the GPOSERS community?

Kupo: I'm pretty new, I joined the same day as Ysh-tola. So far everyone has been treating new people so nicely!

Marot: Being new isn't so bad after all, eh? I'd like to thank you again for both your patience and time in following through with this interview, and we hope you continue to be a part of the community for years to come!

Kupo: Yush!

Royal ATTIRE

STARRING FREYA BLOODMOURNE

Princess and Prince

Both of these outfits were made to match each other; if one truly wants to be a princess, someone must become her prince and show her how lavish you can become. Together the outfits give everyone the happily ever after they desire, while making people look up to you like kings and queens! You will absolutely melt hearts and make all those who are without them jealous. Completing the attires is a tiara and crown, each respectively showing true power over the land of Eorzea.

PRINCE

The Prince Attire is a new addition to the Mog Station which has a very artistic and unique style compared to previous designs. The outfit almost takes you back to your childhood where you begin to feel like you're in some kind of Disney movie. Lets hope you become more like Prince Charming rather than Prince Hans! Whilst you may not be a prince, you will surely feel like one to the people around Eorzea; who love a happy endings and they will certainly learn to worship their newfound Prince. Thanks to the distinctive style, our glamour experts have used their fashion magic and created some other glammers using parts of the outfit.

PRINCESS

The Princess Attire-along with the other attire-is another new addition to the Mog Station. This is one of the more unique dresses around Eorzea, with the dress having a very special take on what a princess should look like. Starting from its puffiness and down to the distinctive shimmering gold design, it gives an air of wealth. Personally, I even feel special wearing it. Once again, our glamour experts have used their magical powers to make different parts of the dress work with other outfits.

Being a glamour junkie myself with the hot weather shining upon me, I felt the need to share with you some of my personal favorite glammers for this season before fall arrives. The Moonfire Attire is a cheap and classic piece of modern beach wear. Which is very casual to go to sleep or walk around the house in, especially if you're with your significant other! For this particular outfit, you can dye it in any color you desire. So whatever you're feeling, you've got it! It has the perfect loose vest which could easily save your delicate skin from being burnt by the roaring sun whilst at the beach. This attire I find to be super cute, and it will definitely draw some attention whilst wearing it. You want to be cute? You know what to do. My inspiration for this glam was to find a cute alternative to going full blown bikini. It's a lovely soft summer look and not very revealing, perfectly suitable for the collection.

HEAD: PURPLE DAISY CORSAGE

The purple daisy corsage is a very small addition to the outfit but adds quite a warm and vibrant feeling to how you show yourself off. It makes you look super cute and approachable whilst wearing it, and it will give you the confidence you need to make yourself feel good. A lot of these corsages and flowers can now be obtained in three ways! The first is through crafting - Alchemy is the name of the game! The other way is through Heaven on High, the new deep dungeon found in the Ruby Sea (you need to be level 63 and have progressed through the main storyline to access the unlock quest). Because these corsages drop regularly in Heaven on High, Market Board prices have dropped considerably as well!

BODY: MOONFIRE HALTER

The Moonfire halter is a very loose piece of clothing, perfect for the softer and vibrant summer look which is great for at home comfort or even the beach. It's less revealing than normal beachwear and is the ideal clothing to avoid the burn. This can be acquired from the Accursed Hoards in Palace of the Dead, crafted by Weavers, or purchased on the Market Board!

LEGS: MOONFIRE TANGA

The Moonfire Tanga is a very suitable attachment to many types of glammers; this is because the bikini bottoms are dyeable and plain. It has a lot of diversity which can be used with any beachwear you desire to arrange it with. A definite need around the beach, it can be acquired from the Accursed Hoards in Palace of the Dead, crafted by Weavers, or purchased on the Market Board!

FEET: LADY'S CLOGS

The Lady's Clogs are a flawless set of slip on outdoor wear. These I use very often, if not with most of my glammers. This summer especially, I find them to be a must even while just walking around the streets of Limsa. These wonderful sandals are also found on the Mog Station - a single pair of shoes for $3 USD.

SUMMER SET & GO

This glamour has been my main outfit all summer. Being a Scholar main I had to get the right summer feel whilst having something loose and flexible to save all those heroes out there in Eorzea. You could call this my nurse uniform since I save people for a living! This is a very casual outfit suitable for outdoors, the beach, or whatever tickles your fancy really. It's a slightly more difficult set to put together as this is specifically a healers only glamour, sorry heroes! This will definitely get people staring at you for all the right reasons; it's time to show off that summer body! The inspiration behind this glamour was to find something that made me look hot whilst having strong colors and flexibility.

HEAD : CLASSIC SPECTACLES

This is a piece I personally cherish, I love any look with glasses. Regardless of if you're male or female, this is a personal favorite of mine! The nerdy look will definitely add a bit of spice to your look, something that most people out there aren't used to. With the new Faire coming along, if normal spectacles don't appeal to you, you can get the Endless Summer Glasses to make you look like a cool kid. Goldsmiths at level 40 can craft this pair with 1 Mythril Ingot and 1 Clear Glass Lens!

BODY: GRYPHONSKIN BREASTGUARD

The breastguard is a very tight piece of clothing; it reveals your stomach and shows off that summer body, which is perfect for this particular collection. It will help you during this searing heat to stave off the sweat while looking fabulous. This top can be found in the Accursed Hoards of Palace of the Dead, unlockable at lvi 17 in Gridania! Of course, it's also available on the Market Board for those with gil to burn!

RINGS: RED CORAL RINGS

These rings are perfect beach material with the amazing texture of the rings made from stuff found in the depths of the ocean itself. How can it not fit with what you so desire to wear? A Goldsmith at level 43 can craft this wonderful accessory!

LEGS: SHISUI KOHAKAMA OF HEALING (63 DUNGEON)

This set includes one piece which is slightly harder to obtain. It requires a level 63 healer and obtaining the gear from the dungeon Shisui of the Violet Tides, unlocked via sidequests in the Ruby Sea. The piece is definitely worth it as it provides the cutest mini skirt in a pure white color, with an amazing red ribbon great for contrast. It will for sure show off your sexy smooth legs, and you will look great!

NECKLACE: PARAMOUR'S PENDANT

The Paramour's Pendant is a very cute and artistic necklace, suitable if you're a fan of chokers. It's very sweet looking and will make you look even better! Rather than trying to show off wealth or skill, it will show a cuter side of you that anyone else can see! This item was only made available during the Valentine's event, but is also now available in 3 styles on the Mog Station for $3 USD each.

NECKLACE: PARAMOUR NECKLACE
RINGS: 2 RED CORAL RINGS

This set is another personal favorite of mine and a definite must for the beach, It's best to have multiple choices of beach wear rather than just one, right? That way you can annoy people just like I do when I go out: "Do you think this one looks good? What about this?", until you realise you look cute in all of them anyway! I just love the feel from the top; it's slightly more revealing but has a super cute pattern and can be used across many different glammers!

BODY: FAIRE JOI

The Faire Joi is a well presented top which has gained vast amounts of popularity at the beach! It has an incredible flowery pattern on the side of the top, with a golden ribbon on the opposite; an amazing but very risky fashionable touch. The set is dyeable and will look splendid no matter what colour floats your boat. It can be used with other items such as leggings or tights, and used for outdoor social purposes like a meal with friends or sitting around Limsa!

BY PINKIE BEAR

This is a perfect casual dress for multiple purposes; its a nice evening dress to go out on a date with, or even show up in at wedding as a lovely walk around outfit! It's an all around win, however, this look only goes well with general-purpose dyes. In my opinion, the style is very underused across Eorzea as it's an old set, but I hope I can convince you otherwise. The inspiration for this glamour for me is just plain hotness in my opinion, and it makes me feel good to be different from everyone while looking super casual and good.

NECKLACE: PEACH BLOSSOM CHOKER

The Peach Blossom Choker is a super cute addition to any glamour with a floral touch, which gives an amazing twist to whatever you desire to wear. The color pink signifies many different things such as sweet, nice, playful, and charming. The list goes on, and so giving off that energy is a must and will make you feel confident when you walk around. This accessory is purchasable on the Mog Station for $3 USD.

BODY: HEMPEN TUNIC

A classic Hempen Tunic is best dyed in any general-purpose color. It's a mini dress that has a really cute belt whilst providing a lot of comfort around the neck. It's a very risky fashion statement in Eorzea, as everyone is so mainstream about new looks and never turn back to look at the old stuff. This for sure will make you look really hot! This top is found at the race-specific vendors at the three major cities, or a Weaver can craft it with basic materials found at the material supplier in player housing!

LEGS: HEMPEN PANTALETES (NOT VISIBLE)

The Hempen Pantalettes are a fine match for many different glammers; this is a personal favorite of mine, as they look good for a variety of reasons! The look changes based on the race you use, but I personally love them all. These pantalettes are found in the same fashion as the Hempen Tunic above.

This is a super cute piece which covers right down to the legs and can appear to be a very small dress, but is suitable beachwear. It gives off vibrant energy compared to all of the others as it's less revealing and will save you from that sun! You have to stay protected; those lasering sun rays don't mess around. It's completely dyeable and can be used-I feel-across Eorzea. Some of my main glammers pair this top with the Bunny Chief Tights or Bridesmaid's Tights! I feel this a very casual and small mini dress rather than a swimsuit; you just have to use your creativity to feel how it should be used. This swimsuit was introduced in a previous event, but it can now be purchased on the Mog Station for $3 USD.

HEAD - ELEGANT RIMLESS GLASSES

Who doesn't love a cute pair of glasses! This particular pair is one of my all time favorites for its simplicity and style; a perfect pair to add some sophistication to the dress, which is a new piece recently added with the additions to the Stormblood expansion. A goldsmith at level 50 (2 star recipe) can craft this snazzy pair for a mere 2 Crystal Glass and 1 Silver Ingot! An affordable addition to that glamour chest for sure!

BODY - QUAINTELLE'S RUFFLED DRESS

Ever since Rowena donned this cute little dress, I had to have it! For me it screams summer sundress; the sleeveless design and frilly accents wonderfully compliment each other, and it looks amazing in any color! I am partial to Dalamud Red, which is the color chosen here. Any level can wear this dress, however it can be a bit trickier to obtain as the materials to craft this piece are found in the Caverns of Uznair -an 8 man treasure hunting instance newly added with the Stormblood expansion. It can be purchased on the Market Board as well, though prices are a bit higher on most servers because it is a newer glamour.

HANDS - BLACKBOSOM DRESS GLOVES

The addition of the Blackbosom Attire on the Mog Station provided some interesting additions! These gloves-though they are far from the title-provide a wonderful accent; the red wrist ties with the purple flowers on each hand just give a subtle touch, and compliment a wide range of glamour options. I chose these with the dress to add just a bit more color to the ensemble. The Blackbosom set has a number of pieces included and can be purchased for $12 USD on the Mog Station.

With summer in full swing, I was inspired to come up with a glamour I felt captures the season; warm weather, bright colors, and cool vibes. I discovered the new Quaintrelle's dress a bit ago after running the new maps dungeon with some friends and I had fallen in love with it but I wasn't sure how to incorporate it into a set that encapsulates both my love for red and keep it fitting for a cute summer-style glamour-until now! After spending some time in my glamour dresser I think I found my perfect summer glamour, aptly named "Sundressed to Kill" I use this glamour primarily on my Red Mage, but I love it's versatility in use for any job and any level! Whether you are spending some time at the Pier in Costa Del Sol, admiring the colorful flowers in Gridania, or just spending some time with friends, this glamour is sure to turn some heads and give you that perfect feeling of summer! The Dress itself was my main inspiration, and my goal was to show off its detail and keep it at the anchor point for the set, the other pieces I used were selected to accent the dress rather than overpower it. Before I get into detail on each piece; here is the list:

LEGS - SCION HEALER'S HALFTIGHTS

My goal for the pants in this set was to find a simple pair of shorts without a ton of accents that shows off the dress, while not being overly revealing. These shorts are form-fitting, and look like a cute pair of spanx; a great addition to showing off some legs without too much more. This pair is found in the Y'shtola's Attire set, purchasable on the Mog Station

FEET - EASTERN LADY'S CRACKOWS

These shoes happen to be one of my all time favorites! I found this set early on in my journey throughout Eorzea on my quest for a simple pair of flats that are reminiscent of this popular style in real life. These are extremely versatile and look great with a pair of pants, or with this particular set! The shoes are part of the Traditional Far Eastern Garb for Women on the Mog Station; this set is wonderful for new players as it provides a passive 30% exp buff while

This glamour is quite a breeze in the summer heat! The style originates from Ala Mhigo itself, and they for sure are no stranger to the heat! The flowy shawl in a vibrant Sky Blue, paired with a spike of yellow flowers, makes this outfit scream summer! I wanted to share this glamour with you all to show that you can be fashionable AND comfortable no matter your size; from the smallest Lalafell to the largest Roegadyn.

Have you heard the news?!

Patch 4.4 is on the way and it's bringing some exciting updates for our most beloved feature in FFXIV Online: Gpose! That said, here is a brief excerpt from the latest live letter that we at Gposers wanted to cover for you:

Minion actions are coming! Those sweet little followers of ours we spend countless hours farming will finally be able to get a little more freedom in our images!

Walk/run animations! Gposers rejoice! We are excited to see this implemented in Gpose, and this is a big win for action/adventure shoots! We can potentially add natural walk/runs in our screens!

Lock weather and time! Ever struggled trying to get the right freeze point for everyone in a shot only to lose that perfect lighting position or get bogged down by a weather change? That very well may now be a thing of the past! Giving Gpose the ability to freeze both time and weather will give us the ability to stage the perfect shot!

New Effects! There will be some new effects coming down the pipeline to enhance our images!

This live letter hasn't gone into a huge amount of detail, but the features that have been mentioned are all very welcome additions to this amazing feature. It's no lie to say that we're excited to see how Square Enix rolls out these spectacular additions to Gpose.

Happy Gposing!
